As an individual representing the talent and leadership that helps to shape the Washington community, you are listed in the most comprehensive directory of the city's significant public and private institutions,

WASHINGTON '86.

Listed with you are 16,000 leaders from organizations operating within many diverse segments of the Washington community, including:

*government *international affairs *national issues *the bar
*medicine *media *business *science and research *professional associations *labor unions *community affairs
*education *religion *foundations *the arts

WASHINGTON '86 provides you with detailed and accurate information in a convenient format on over 3,400 institutions. It is an indispensable resource for contacting customers, conducting research, campaigning for issues, conferring with experts and creating a clientele!

Rather than buying seventeen different directories that give you only limited information, treat yourself to one affordably unique directory: WASHINGTON '86. To order your copy, send the attached form to Columbia Books, Inc. If you are not completely satisfied with your directory, return it within 30 days for a full refund. For more information on WASHINGTON '86, please call (202) 737-3777 and ask for John Russell or Patty Lee.
